

Who We Are

NRRDA is an independent, non-profit, networking association of legal and claims professionals in the retail and restaurant industries. Membership in NRRDA places you at the forefront of the development of strategies to reduce the number and severity of claims, manage common risks, and enhance our defense position in litigated matters.

Membership Types

Industry Members are employed by a retail or restaurant establishment, insurance company, or are in-house counsel. Membership is free. Sample industry member companies include:

- The Gap
- The Cheesecake Factory
- Burlington Stores
- Texas de Brazil

Vendor Members are those involved in the investigation and defense of claims filed against retail or restaurant businesses, such as field adjusters, expert claim adjusters or employees of settlement companies. Annual membership is $425.

Attorney Members regularly defend retail or restaurant companies or those affiliated with the industries and whose law firm does not represent personal injury plaintiffs against the industries. Criteria for attorney members are selective and subject to a fully vetted application process. Annual membership is $575.

Member Benefits - A network of professionals dedicated to minimizing claims and effectively managing litigation.

Education

Earn CE and CLE credits at NRRDA's Annual Conference and Lighthouse Seminar that highlight important industry topics. Receive quarterly NRRDA newsletters containing current, relevant information regarding issues affecting your industry.

Networking

Exchange ideas, techniques and experiences with fellow members on cutting edge risk management and litigation strategies at the annual conference and through access to www.nrrda.org and its growing social community via the members' only LinkedIn group, Twitter and Facebook. NRRDA's website provides a nationwide membership directory, the latest CE credit opportunities, and resource archive.

Leadership Opportunities

By joining NRRDA, attorney, industry and vendor members are encouraged to get involved by joining one of our committees. NRRDA is a dynamic and growing organization seeking industry thought leaders to keep all members on the cutting edge.

Meetings

The Annual Conference and Lighthouse Seminar are open to all member types and emphasize continuing education – offering preregistered CE credits - along with social outings designed to enhance networking opportunities. Come prepared to participate in engaging educational sessions led by experienced professionals involved in legal defense of the restaurant and retail industry.

Save the Date

2018 Annual Conference – February 28-March 2, 2018
JW Marriott, New Orleans, Louisiana

JOIN TODAY!

To apply or if you have questions – go to www.nrrda.org or contact Deb Ryan at debr@celticchicago.com.